Hillard.

1835

June 20 Mr. John McNeill's broke his neck by falling from
Mr. Hillard's waggon - he was much intoxicated.

734 Hillcrest Dr,
London, Ont.,
Aug. 9, 1969.

Dear Dr. Burleigh;

On the advice of our neighbour, Mr. Leslie Gray, we are writing to you for some help. He said that you are an expert in the history of your area and we need your guidance in tracing our family history.

The name of the family we are interested in, is 'Hillier'. So far, we have found that a Major George Hillier came out to your area to be secretary to Sir Perigrine Maitland, governor of Upper Canada from 1818 to 1828. A township and village were named after this Major Hillier. We are not sure if this is our connection, but we believe he had a son George (jr.) (from which our descendants come) and that he married a Givin: but until his death in 1841, the facts are very foggy indeed. Did George (jr.) have any brothers or sisters? (A Jane, John, and Thomas Hillier are mentioned in the Toronto Archives - John and Thomas were born in 1824 and 1829 respectively. We don't know if they were possibly children of Major Hillier.) When did the Major marry - before or after he came to Canada? Where was he buried - in Prince Edward county, or did he move in the 'Hard Summer of 1830' with his son George to Little York near Toronto and die there? There are so many confusing questions that can only be answered by someone in the area.

We know for sure that William, a son of George (jr.) was born in the Don Valley near Toronto for he is my great-grandfather. But the years from 1828 (when Sir Maitland returned to England and the Major was promoted to lieutenant - colonel) to 1837 (when William was born) are a complete mystery.

Any help that you could give us would be greatly appreciated. We have written to the Toronto Archives, the Ontario Genealogical Society, and a relative in Trenton; we have researched the book, The County - The First Hundred Years in Loyalist Prince Edward : and have looked in our own London Public Library. If there is anything else we can do, please let us know.

Thank-you very much.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Winnifred Harrison
